Item 3.03 Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders.

As previously reported, on January 19, 2012, Eastman Kodak Company (the "Company") and its certain of its subsidiaries (together with the Company, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court"), Case No. 12-10202 (ALG). On August 23, 2013, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order confirming the revised First Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Eastman Kodak Company and its Debtor Affiliates (the "Plan"). Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this report on Form 8-K shall have the meanings given to them in the Plan.

On September 3, 2013, the Plan became effective pursuant to its terms and the Debtors emerged from their chapter 11 cases.

Upon the effectiveness of the Plan, all previously issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock were cancelled as were all other previously issued and outstanding Equity Interests. Upon effectiveness of the Plan, the Company issued shares of a new class of common stock pursuant to the 1145 Rights Offering and the 4(2) Rights Offering. A portion of the 1145 Rights Offering Shares issued to the Backstop Parties, and all of the 4(2) Rights Offering Shares, are restricted securities under the Securities Act of 1933 and may not be offered, sold or otherwise transferred except in accordance with applicable restrictions. Additional shares of the new common stock are to be issued pursuant to the Plan as distributions to unsecured creditors. The Company expects to make initial distributions on account of general unsecured claims by the end of September.

In addition, upon effectiveness of the Plan, the Debtors' Second Lien Notes and Unsecured Notes were cancelled. These securities included the following:

- 7.00% Convertible Senior Notes due 2017
- 7.25% Senior Notes due 2013
- 9.20% Debentures due 2021
- 9.95% Debentures due 2018
- 9.75% Senior Secured Notes due 2018
- 10.625% Senior Secured Notes due 2019.

In addition to the above, upon the effectiveness of the Plan, all obligations of the Debtors under the Second Lien Notes Indentures, Unsecured Notes Indentures, and any other Certificate, Equity Interest, share, note, bond, indenture, purchase right, option, warrant or other instrument or document directly or indirectly evidencing or creating any indebtedness or obligation of or ownership interest in the Debtors or giving rise to any Claim or Equity Interest (except as provided under the Plan), were cancelled as to the Debtors and their Affiliates, and the Reorganized Debtors and their Affiliates ceased to have any obligations thereunder, provided that the Second Lien Notes Indentures and Unsecured Notes Indentures remain in effect and govern the rights and obligations of the Indenture Trustees and the beneficial holders of notes issued thereunder.

Holders of the Debtors' Second Lien Notes and Unsecured Notes are entitled to receive the distributions provided under the Plan in full and final satisfaction of their Claims.

The description of the Plan in this report on Form 8-K is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Plan. A copy of the Plan was filed as Exhibit 2.2 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on August 29, 2013.

Kodak Emerges as Technology Company Focused on Imaging for Business

CEO Perez: “Kodak: What’s Next Starts Now.”

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Sept. 3 – “Kodak: What’s Next Starts Now.”

Today, Antonio M. Perez, Kodak Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, announced the company’s emergence from Chapter 11 as a reorganized company, following completion of the final steps in the restructuring process.

“We have emerged as a technology company serving imaging for business markets – including packaging, functional printing, graphic communications and professional services,” said Perez. “We have been revitalized by our transformation and restructured to become a formidable competitor – leaner, with a strong capital structure, a healthy balance sheet, and the industry’s best technology.”

Kodak completed the final steps in its Chapter 11 restructuring, including the spin-off of its Personalized Imaging and Document Imaging businesses to Kodak Pension Plan, a longstanding pension plan of Kodak’s U.K. subsidiary. The company also successfully closed on its agreement for $695 million in term exit financing, paid off its DIP lenders and second lien noteholders in full and completed its rights offerings, receiving approximately $406 million of new equity investments from participating unsecured creditors.

“We are setting a trajectory for profitable growth,” Perez said. “We have the right technology at the right time as printing markets increasingly transition to digital. Our broad portfolio of offset, hybrid and digital solutions enables customers to make the transition at their chosen pace using our breakthrough technology solutions.

“We thank our employees for their extraordinary skills and commitment. We thank our suppliers for their dedication. We thank our customers and partners for their loyalty and for inspiring us to create disruptive technologies and breakthrough solutions.”

The company has filed notice of the effectiveness of its Plan of Reorganization with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York. Upon the effectiveness of the Plan, all previously issued and outstanding shares of Kodak common stock were cancelled, as were all other previously issued and outstanding equity interests. Kodak issued shares of a new class of common stock to participants in the rights offerings and will issue additional shares of this new class of common stock to unsecured creditors as provided in the Plan of Reorganization. Kodak expects to make initial distributions on account of general unsecured claims by the end of September.

Kodak will file a report on Form 8-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission including more details.
